Meh. . Emergency request don't get done until the next day. And if it's Saturday after 4pm lol good luck till Monday. I've had food go bad. Ive been stuck in the parking lot for a few hours (the gates were closed and we have no code). The sidewalks don't get cleared when it snows. Only thing i like is there has been no crimes or cops outside.

I have received little to no help with any of my issues regarding rent or mail. The Amazon hub won't work and I can't have packages delivered to me because the portal is broken. Amazon has stated the office should have a form but they claim there is no form. I have received no clear word about the promotional deal which was half the reason I chose to live here in the first place. I'm run around by the resident office and leasing office unable to get a certain answer. It's incredibly shady, unprofessional and upsetting. I currently have no plans of renewing my lease at this rate.

Muy mala administración la verdad. Tengo viviendo 10 años en el mismo Apartamento . Mi Apartamento se está derunvando para abajo estoy en el segundo piso y el piso ya está todo dañado, vengo diciendo que me ayuden con mi Apartamento. Ya que me toca renovar . Pero no me quieren ayudar ya hable con la mánager Alex. Y solo sabe decir que lo mejor que me tranfiera pero me quieren contar por la transferencia el cual yo solo quiero que me ayuden con mi Apartamento pero si la única solucionar que la mánager sabe decir es transferencia y que no puede hacer nada mejor me iré de la propiedad no les recomiendo aquí. Muy mala Administración y la mánager no ayuda en nada.

I haven't even moved in yet, and I already feel so welcomed by the team at AVA Apartments! The leasing office has been absolutely incredible throughout this entire process. They are extremely responsive, respectful, and genuinely kind. Every question I've had has been answered quickly and clearly, and they've made what can normally be a stressful experience feel smooth and easy.

This is truly the nicest and most professional leasing office I've ever come across. Their communication and customer service are top tier. I'm so excited to move in and be part of this community! If you're considering AVA, just know you'll be in great hands. 🍷

New company took over, CAF- and the Maintenance Tech Chris absolutely knocked our socks off with his professionalism and helpfulness. He came and fixed our dishwasher in just a few minutes, and helped us figure out what had caused the issue to begin with.

Great service! There were some technical hiccups with the transition- but they've definitely shown commitment to making these apartments better. Excited for the new year with the new management group! Shoutout Chris again.

Run away don't come here, no hot water since winter, or you bring your Big pot to boil hot water for you and family. This has been every year. Summer the water is scotch Hot. The shower mixer/ manifest does not mix hot and cold, can jumb very Hot at middle of showering, thus burning your body.

My car was hit and run at midnight and the apartment couldn't get a surveillance camera of the other driver.

Now you know before Hands

Today 01/11/26. Even with the new management, in the midst of cold weather there is no hot water, this is about 12am midnight boiling water with my big pot just to get hot water.

My pest control treatment request was marked completed without anyone coming into my unit. The new management uses AI to respond with text messages and nothing is getting done.

Don't waste your time here.

There is absolutely no communication. After I paid the deposit for the application, we heard nothing for two straight weeks—no updates, no notifications, and no indication of whether the application was approved or denied. We tried repeatedly to contact them, but they didn't even bother to share their new email for updates until the last minute. I live an hour and a half away and had to drive to the office every weekend for nearly a month and a half just to get about five minutes of my questions answered. This experience was extremely frustrating and unprofessional.
